Employee's Withholding Certificate

OMB No. 1545-0074

Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay.Give Form W-4 to your employer.*Your withholding is subject to review by the IRS.*2026*Step 1:
Enter
Personal Information

(a) First name and middle initial	Last name	(b) Social security number
Address		Does your name match the name on your social security card? If not, to ensure you get credit for your earnings, contact SSA at 800-772-1213 or go to www.ssa.gov .
City or town, state, and ZIP code
(c) ☐ Single or Married filing separately ☐ Married filing jointly or Qualifying surviving spouse ☐ Head of household (Check only if you're unmarried and pay more than half the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and a qualifying individual.)
Caution: To claim certain credits or deductions on your tax return, you (and/or your spouse if married filing jointly) are required to have a social security number valid for employment. See page 2 for more information.

TIP: Consider using the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App to determine the most accurate withholding for the rest of the year if you: are completing this form after the beginning of the year; expect to work only part of the year; or have changes during the year in your marital status, number of jobs for you (and/or your spouse if married filing jointly), dependents, other income (not from jobs), deductions, or credits. Have your most recent pay stub(s) from this year available when using the estimator. At the beginning of next year, use the estimator again to recheck your withholding.

Complete Steps 2–4 ONLY if they apply to you; otherwise, skip to Step 5. See page 2 for more information on each step, who can claim exemption from withholding, and when to use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App.

Step 2:
Multiple Jobs
or Spouse Works

Complete this step if you (1) hold more than one job at a time, or (2) are married filing jointly and your spouse also works. The correct amount of withholding depends on income earned from all of these jobs.

Do only one of the following.

- (a) Use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App for the most accurate withholding for this step (and Steps 3–4). If you or your spouse have self-employment income, use this option; or
- (b) Use the Multiple Jobs Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result in Step 4(c) below; or
- (c) If there are only two jobs total, you may check this box. Do the same on Form W-4 for the other job. This option is generally more accurate than Step 2(b) if pay at the lower paying job is more than half of the pay at the higher paying job. Otherwise, Step 2(b) is more accurate ☐

Complete Steps 3–4(b) on Form W-4 for only ONE of these jobs. Leave those steps blank for the other jobs. (Your withholding will be most accurate if you complete Steps 3–4(b) on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.)

Step 3:
Claim
Dependent
and Other Credits

If your total income will be $200,000 or less ($400,000 or less if married filing jointly):

(a) Multiply the number of qualifying children under age 17 by $2,200 3(a) $

(b) Multiply the number of other dependents by $500 3(b) $

Add the amounts from Steps 3(a) and 3(b), plus the amount for other credits. Enter the total here 3 $

Step 4:
Other Adjustments

(a) Other income (not from jobs). If you want tax withheld for other income you expect this year that won't have withholding, enter the amount of other income here. This may include interest, dividends, and retirement income 4(a) $

(b) Deductions. Use the Deductions Worksheet on page 4 to determine the amount of deductions you may claim, which will reduce your withholding. (If you skip this line, your withholding will be based on the standard deduction.) Enter the result here . . . 4(b) $

(c) Extra withholding. Enter any additional tax you want withheld each pay period . . . 4(c) $

Exempt from withholding

I claim exemption from withholding for 2026, and I certify that I meet both of the conditions for exemption for 2026. See Exemption from withholding on page 2. I understand I will need to submit a new Form W-4 for 2027 . . . ☐

Step 5:
Sign
Here

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that this certificate, to the best of my knowledge and belief, is true, correct, and complete.

Future Developments

For the latest information about developments related to Form W-4, such as legislation enacted after it was published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW4.

Purpose of Form

Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. If too little is withheld, you will generally owe tax when you file your tax return and may owe a penalty. If too much is withheld, you will generally be due a refund. Complete a new Form W-4 when changes to your personal or financial situation would change the entries on the form. For more information on withholding and when you must furnish a new Form W-4, see Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Exemption from withholding. You may claim exemption from withholding for 2026 if you meet both of the following conditions: you had no federal income tax liability in 2025 and you expect to have no federal income tax liability in 2026. You had no federal income tax liability in 2025 if (1) your total tax on line 24 on your 2025 Form 1040 or 1040-SR is zero (or less than the sum of lines 27a, 28, 29, and 30), or (2) you were not required to file a return because your income was below the filing threshold for your correct filing status. If you claim exemption, you will have no income tax withheld from your paycheck and may owe taxes and penalties when you file your 2026 tax return. To claim exemption from withholding, certify that you meet both of the conditions by checking the box in the Exempt from withholding section. Then, complete Steps 1(a), 1(b), and 5. Do not complete any other steps. You will need to submit a new Form W-4 by February 16, 2027.

Your privacy. Steps 2(c) and 4(a) ask for information regarding income you received from sources other than the job associated with this Form W-4. If you have concerns with providing the information asked for in Step 2(c), you may choose Step 2(b) as an alternative; if you have concerns with providing the information asked for in Step 4(a), you may enter an additional amount you want withheld per pay period in Step 4(c) as an alternative.

When to use the estimator. Consider using the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App if you:

1. Are submitting this form after the beginning of the year;
2. Expect to work only part of the year;
3. Have changes during the year in your marital status, number of jobs for you (and/or your spouse if married filing jointly), or number of dependents, or changes in your deductions or credits;
4. Receive dividends, capital gains, social security, bonuses, or business income, or are subject to the Additional Medicare Tax or Net Investment Income Tax; or
5. Prefer the most accurate withholding for multiple job situations.

TIP: Have your most recent pay stub(s) from this year available when using the estimator to account for federal income tax that has already been withheld this year. At the beginning of next year, use the estimator again to recheck your withholding.

Self-employment. Generally, you will owe both income and self-employment taxes on any self-employment income you receive separate from the wages you receive as an employee. If you want to pay these taxes through withholding from your wages, use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App to figure the amount to have withheld.

Nonresident alien. If you're a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Specific Instructions

Step 1(c). Check your anticipated filing status. This will determine the standard deduction and tax rates used to compute your withholding.

Step 2. Use this step if you (1) have more than one job at the same time, or (2) are married filing jointly and you and your spouse both work. Submit a separate Form W-4 for each job.

Option (a) most accurately calculates the additional tax you need to have withheld, while option (b) does so with a little less accuracy.

Instead, if you (and your spouse) have a total of only two jobs, you may check the box in option (c). The box must also be checked on the Form W-4 for the other job. If the box is checked, the standard deduction and tax brackets will be cut in half for each job to calculate withholding. This option is accurate for jobs with similar pay; otherwise, more tax than necessary may be withheld, and this extra amount of tax withheld will be larger the greater the difference in pay is between the two jobs.

Multiple jobs. Complete Steps 3 through 4(b) on only one Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you do this on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Step 3. This step provides instructions for determining the amount of the child tax credit and the credit for other dependents that you may be able to claim when you file your tax return. To qualify for the child tax credit, the child must be under age 17 as of December 31, must be your dependent who generally lives with you for more than half the year, and must have the required social security number. You (and/or your spouse if married filing jointly) must have the required social security number to claim certain credits. You may be able to claim a credit for other dependents for whom a child tax credit can't be claimed, such as an older child or a qualifying relative. For additional eligibility requirements for these credits, see Pub. 501, Dependents, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information. You can also include other tax credits for which you are eligible in this step, such as the foreign tax credit and the education tax credits. To do so, add an estimate of the amount for the year to your credits for dependents and enter the total amount in Step 3. Including these credits will increase your paycheck and reduce the amount of any refund you may receive when you file your tax return.

Step 4.

Step 4(a). Enter in this step the total of your other estimated income for the year, if any. You shouldn't include income from any jobs or self-employment. If you complete Step 4(a), you likely won't have to make estimated tax payments for that income. If you prefer to pay estimated tax rather than having tax on other income withheld from your paycheck, see Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals.

Step 4(b). Enter in this step the amount from the Deductions Worksheet, line 15, if you expect to claim deductions other than the basic standard deduction on your 2026 tax return and want to reduce your withholding to account for these deductions. This includes both itemized deductions and other deductions such as for qualified tips, overtime compensation, and passenger vehicle loan interest; student loan interest; IRAs; and seniors. You (and/or your spouse if married filing jointly) must have the required social security number to claim certain deductions. For additional eligibility requirements, see Pub. 501.

Step 4(c). Enter in this step any additional tax you want withheld from your pay each pay period, including any amounts from the Multiple Jobs Worksheet, line 4. Entering an amount here will reduce your paycheck and will either increase your refund or reduce any amount of tax that you owe when you file your tax return.

Step 2(b) – Multiple Jobs Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

If you choose the option in Step 2(b) on Form W-4, complete this worksheet (which calculates the total extra tax for all jobs) on only ONE Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you complete the worksheet and enter the result on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job. To be accurate, submit a new Form W-4 for all other jobs if you have not updated your withholding since 2019.

Note: If more than one job has annual wages of more than $120,000 or there are more than three jobs, see Pub. 505 for additional tables; or, you can use the online withholding estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App.

- 1 Two jobs. If you have two jobs or you're married filing jointly and you and your spouse each have one job, find the amount from the appropriate table on page 5. Using the "Higher Paying Job" row and the "Lower Paying Job" column, find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 1. Then, skip to line 3 1 $ _____

- 2 Three jobs. If you and/or your spouse have three jobs at the same time, complete lines 2a, 2b, and 2c below. Otherwise, skip to line 3.
 - a Find the amount from the appropriate table on page 5 using the annual wages from the highest paying job in the "Higher Paying Job" row and the annual wages for your next highest paying job in the "Lower Paying Job" column. Find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 2a 2a $ _____

 - b Add the annual wages of the two highest paying jobs from line 2a together and use the total as the wages in the "Higher Paying Job" row and use the annual wages for your third job in the "Lower Paying Job" column to find the amount from the appropriate table on page 5 and enter this amount on line 2b 2b $ _____

 - c Add the amounts from lines 2a and 2b and enter the result on line 2c 2c $ _____

- 3 Enter the number of pay periods per year for the highest paying job. For example, if that job pays weekly, enter 52; if it pays every other week, enter 26; if it pays monthly, enter 12, etc. 3 _____

- 4 Divide the annual amount on line 1 or line 2c by the number of pay periods on line 3. Enter this amount here and in Step 4(c) of Form W-4 for the highest paying job (plus any other additional amount you want withheld) 4 $ _____

Step 4(b)—Deductions Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

See the Instructions for Schedule 1-A (Form 1040) for more information about whether you qualify for the deductions on lines 1a, 1b, 1c, 3a, and 3b.

Privacy Act and Paperwork Reduction Act Notice. We ask for the information on this form to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. Internal Revenue Code sections 3402(f)(2) and 6109 and their regulations require you to provide this information; your employer uses it to determine your federal income tax withholding. Failure to provide a properly completed form will result in your being treated as a single person with no other entries on the form; providing fraudulent information may subject you to penalties. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation; to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. commonwealths and territories for use in administering their tax laws; and to the Department of Health and Human Services for use in the National Directory of New Hires. We may also disclose this information to other countries under a tax treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce federal nontax criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism.

You are not required to provide the information requested on a form that is subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act unless the form displays a valid OMB control number. Books or records relating to a form or its instructions must be retained as long as their contents may become material in the administration of any Internal Revenue law. Generally, tax returns and return information are confidential, as required by Code section 6103.

The average time and expenses required to complete and file this form will vary depending on individual circumstances. For estimated averages, see the instructions for your income tax return.

This certificate is for income tax withholding and child support enforcement purposes only. Type or print.

Employee	Full Name		Social Security Number
	Home Address (Number and Street or Rural Route)		City or Town	State ZIP Code
Signature	1. Filing Status: Check the appropriate filing status below. ☐ Single or Married Spouse Works or Married Filing Separate ☐ Married (Spouse does not work) ☐ Head of Household
	2. Additional withholding: If you expect to have a balance due (as a result of interest income, dividends, income from a part-time job, etc.) on your tax return, you may request your employer to withhold an additional amount of tax from each pay period. To calculate the amount needed, divide the amount of the expected tax by the number of pay periods in a year. Enter the additional amount to be withheld each pay period on line 2.....			2
	3. Reduced withholding: If you expect to receive a refund (as a result of itemized deductions, modifications or tax credits) on your tax return, you may direct your employer to only withhold the amount indicated on line 3. Your employer will not use the standard calculations for withholding. If you designate an amount that is too low, it could result in you being under withheld. To calculate the amount needed, divide the amount of your expected tax by the number of pay periods in a year. Enter the amount to be withheld instead of the standard calculation. If no amount is indicated on line 3, the standard calculations will be used..			3
	4. Exempt Status: Select the appropriate reason you are claiming an exemption from withholding below and indicate EXEMPT on line 4. ☐ I am exempt because I had a right to a refund of all Missouri income tax withheld last year and expect to have no tax liability this year. A new MO W-4 must be completed annually if you wish to continue the exemption. ☐ I am exempt because I meet the conditions set forth under the Servicemember Civil Relief Act, as amended by the Military Spouses Residency Relief Act and have no Missouri tax liability. ☐ I am exempt because my income is earned as a member of any active duty component of the Armed Forces of the United States and I am eligible for the military income deduction.			4

Form MO W-4 (Revised 12-2024)

ORGANIZED HEALTH CARE DELIVERY SYSTEM AGREEMENT
MEDICAID/NON-PUBLIC ENTITY-OHCDS
HOME AND COMMUNITY BASED SERVICES

THIS AGREEMENT, (hereafter "Agreement") is made as of this _____ day of _____, in the State of Missouri, by and between the Disability Resource Association by and through its Center for Independent Living (hereinafter "CIL") and an attendant named _____ (hereinafter "Attendant") to be employed by _____ (hereinafter "Consumer"), collectively, the "Parties").

WHEREAS, the Parties wish to allow Consumer, by and through the CIL to employ Attendant to furnish medical services to Consumer as described herein; and

WHEREAS, CIL has contracted with the Missouri Department of Health and Senior Services by authority of Mo. Rev. Stat. § 208.900; and

WHEREAS, a payroll services company named CDS Payroll (hereinafter "Fiscal Intermediary") is under contract with the CIL to provide payroll services for Consumer to comply with applicable tax and insurance obligations.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the above-stated premises and subject to the conditions hereinafter set forth, the parties agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

Scope of Services & Method of Performance

1.1 Attendant's Obligations. Attendant shall provide the following services to Consumer:

- (a) Routine tasks required by a physically disabled person to enable him or her to live independently as outlined in the consumer's plan of care. The description and frequency of services to be provided and the maximum number of units allowed are based on the needs of the consumer and will be clearly stated in the consumer's plan of care.

1.2 Basis of Payment. The CIL will provide funds to the Fiscal Intermediary to pay an agreed hourly rate for services performed by the Attendant hereunder. The Fiscal Intermediary will issue payroll to the Attendant on behalf of the Consumer. Payment will be made only for services described and authorized in a plan of care agreed to by Consumer and the Missouri Department of Health and Senior Services, or otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement. Units of service are 15 minutes. Any service units provided within a month beyond the number of units authorized for that month will not be payable under this Agreement and will be the responsibility of the Consumer. Payment to the Attendant will be made only for services actually delivered by the Attendant, and otherwise contemplated by this Agreement. The Attendant shall have the qualifications and training to perform the duties described in the consumer evaluation. Any service units provided before all requirements of this contract are completed will not be payable. Payment does not include any fringe benefits such as, without limitation, health insurance, sick leave, vacation, or paid holidays.

- 1.3 Method of Payment. CIL will furnish the Consumer with documents authorizing payment of the services included in Section 1.1. These documents will specify maximum units and rates for payment and the time frames to which these maximums apply. CIL will furnish Consumer with forms with which to document services performed and time worked. Attendant and Consumer shall on a daily basis accurately and completely record the hours worked and services rendered by the Attendant. Any fraud will be reported to the relevant law enforcement agencies. Payroll will be processed bi-weekly. At the end of each payroll period, Consumer shall approve each accurate and complete time sheet completed by Attendant, and Consumer shall forward the same to CIL. The time sheet must be delivered to CIL within five (5) calendar days after the end of the payroll period in order to be included in that period's payment. Should the time sheet not be delivered in the above time frame, such payment will be tendered at the next payroll period. Fiscal Intermediary will issue a check to Attendant, after withholding all applicable taxes, including the Attendant's income tax, the employee and employer shares of the FICA tax, and both federal and state unemployment taxes. Fiscal Intermediary shall pay the tax amounts to the relevant authorities, shall maintain records as required by law of all withholdings, and shall furnish the Attendant and Consumer with end of year statements for filing relevant tax returns. Consumer shall not supplement (i.e., make extra payments) to Attendant outside of that contemplated under this Agreement. The records maintained by Fiscal Intermediary shall constitute the official record of the employer/employee relationship that will be reported to state and federal tax authorities. Both the Attendant and Consumer could be subject to prosecution for tax evasion if all earnings and taxes are not accurately reported to these taxing authorities.

Obligations of All Parties. Each party hereto shall:

- (a) shall promptly upon request by an appropriate government agency supply all information necessary for the reimbursement of any outstanding Medicaid claims;
- (b) safeguard information regarding Consumer, including:
 - i. Names and addresses;
 - ii. Medical services provided;
 - iii. Social and economic conditions or circumstances;
 - iv. Agency evaluation of personal information;
 - v. Medical data, including diagnosis and past history of disease or disability; and
 - vi. Any information received for verifying income eligibility and amount of medical assistance payments. Income information received from SSA or the Internal Revenue Service must be safeguarded according to the requirements of the agency that furnished the data.
- (c) Not delegate services contemplated under this Agreement to subcontractors, unless otherwise expressly provided herein (any subcontract must be in writing, and identified in this Agreement).

- 1.4 Evaluation. Performance under this Agreement is subject to potential evaluation and inspection by federal (including the Federal Department of Health and Human Services) or State entities, including the quality, appropriateness, and timeliness of services rendered. Furthermore, if Medicaid payments are involved, the Missouri Department of Social Services shall also have the right to such evaluation.

ARTICLE II
Term of Agreement

- 2.1 Term. The term of this Agreement is one (1) year. This Agreement shall be reviewed by CIL at the end of the year. If Consumer employs the Attendant at the time of review, the Agreement shall automatically be renewed by CIL. If, at the time of review, Attendant is not employed by Consumer, CIL shall terminate the Agreement, unless CIL determines in its sole discretion that future employment is likely. Should the Consumer terminate the employment relationship, such shall not terminate this Agreement. This Agreement shall serve to allow the Attendant to be employed by more than one (1) consumer.

ARTICLE III
Conditions and Miscellaneous Provisions

- 3.1 Limited Agency. Attendant understands that (s)he is not the employee of any person or entity other than the Consumer. Attendant acknowledges that (s)he is not the employee, and shall not represent that (s)he is the employee of the CIL, Fiscal Intermediary, the State of Missouri, or the Federal government. Attendant acknowledges that nothing herein shall limit Consumer's ability to employ other attendants within the terms of the Consumer's agreement with CIL. Attendant understands and agrees that this Agreement does not guarantee any number of hours of work.
- 3.2 Confidentiality. All information shared with the Attendant during performance of this Agreement shall be and remain confidential.
- 3.3 Liability for Injuries in Scope of Employment. Consumer and Attendant shall hold CIL and Fiscal Intermediary harmless for any damages occurring within the scope of Attendant's employment.
- 3.4 Equal Employment Opportunity. The Parties agree to comply with Executive Order 11246 providing an equal employment opportunity.

CDS Payroll/Timekeeping Procedures

All attendants are paid promptly and accurately for the hours they have worked. All attendants must follow the rules below:

- Clock in and clock out of work using the computerized timekeeping system. This confirms your attendance at work. Failure to do so may delay processing your paycheck.
- If there is a system outage or the system is not letting you clock in or clock out, contact the DRA office immediately and request to speak to the CDS Payroll Department.
- Only clock in or clock out at your place of work.
- Do not attempt to clock other employees in or out.
- Do not work more than your scheduled hours. The Disability Resource Association is not responsible for hours worked over the Consumer's service plan.
- A printed record of hours worked is available upon request.

My signature below indicates that I have read and understand the above payroll and timekeeping procedures.

REGISTRATION AGREEMENT

The information provided is complete and accurate to the best of my knowledge. I understand it is unlawful to withhold or falsify information required on this form. I grant my permission for the Missouri Department of Health and Senior Services (DHSS) to obtain any and all background information authorized by law to process this request. Furthermore, I authorize the DHSS to release the fact that I am a registrant in the Family Care Safety Registry (FCSR) and any related background information to the requester of the FCSR for employment purposes only, as provided in §210.921, subsection 1, subdivisions (1) and (2), RSMo. For purposes of the FCSR, "employment purposes" includes direct employer/employee relationships, prospective employer/employee relationships, and screening and interviewing of persons or facilities by those persons contemplating the placement of an individual in a child care, elder care or personal care setting. I understand that if I dispute the information contained in the FCSR I have the right to appeal the accuracy of the transfer of information to the FCSR within thirty (30) days of receiving the results of the background screening.

NOTICE: The FCSR may choose to deposit the check enclosed electronically as an ACH debit entry to my designated bank account. I understand that my signature below authorizes my financial institution to deduct this payment from my account. In the event that DHSS or its subcontractor is unable to secure funds from my account or I provide insufficient or inaccurate information regarding my account, my obligation to the DHSS will remain unpaid and further collection action may be taken by the DHSS or its subcontractor, including, but not limited to, returned check fees.

WHAT IS THE FAMILY CARE SAFETY REGISTRY?

The Family Care Safety Registry (FCSR), administered by the Missouri Department of Health and Senior Services (DHSS), provides families and employers with a method to obtain background screening information. The Registry, through various state agencies, offers several resources to screen child care, long term care and mental health workers:

- State criminal history and sex offender registry records maintained by the Missouri State Highway Patrol
- Child abuse/neglect records maintained by the Missouri Department of Social Services
- The Employee Disqualification List maintained by the Missouri Department of Health and Senior Services
- The Employee Disqualification Registry maintained by the Missouri Department of Mental Health
- Child care facility licensing records maintained by the Missouri Department of Elementary and Secondary Education
- Foster parent records maintained by the Missouri Department of Social Services

WHO HAS TO REGISTER?

Any person hired on or after January 1, 2001, as a child care worker or elder care worker, hired on or after January 1, 2002, as a personal care worker, or hired on or after January 1, 2009, as a mental health worker, as provided in §210.906, RSMo, is required to make application for registration in the Family Care Safety Registry within fifteen (15) days of the beginning of employment. Such person who fails to submit a completed registration form to the DHSS without good cause, as determined by the department, is guilty of a class B misdemeanor. Employees and volunteers from non-state and/or federally regulated entities are NOT REQUIRED to register with the FCSR.

HOW DO I COMPLETE THE REGISTRATION FORM?

Registration Type – Check at least one box from the left column for type of registration that best describes your worker category. If no other type applies, select “Voluntary.” (A “voluntary registrant” is a person who is not mandated to register with the Family Care Safety Registry pursuant to §210.900 et seq., RSMo.) If you checked Long Term Care / Personal Care, please also make one or more selections from the column on the right for subcategory.

Social Security Number – You must provide your Social Security number pursuant to 19CSR 30-80.030(1). This identifying information, including Social Security number, will be used for internal identification purposes and to conduct background screenings for the resource information listed in paragraph one above.

Personal Information – List your current Last Name, First Name, Middle Name, and any suffix associated with your last name. List any other names by which you may have been known, including maiden names, past married names, and nicknames (attach additional sheets if needed). For identification purposes, list your gender and date of birth.

Contact Information – List your address, city, state, ZIP code, and county. Include your telephone number and email address. We will use this information to notify you of registration results and any background screenings conducted. Email notifications will be encrypted for improved security. To reduce postage costs, the Registry may contact you to request a personal email address if one is not provided.

Employer Associated with this Registration - If you are currently employed by or are seeking employment with a child care or long term care provider, please list the facility name, address, telephone number, and contact person. If registration is not for employment purposes, make a selection from column on right. The employer entered in this section will not receive a copy of the registration notification. Employers eligible to use the Registry for caregiver screenings must make a separate request for your background information.

Registration Agreement – Sign and date the registration form. Your signature will authorize the Family Care Safety Registry to conduct the background screening outlined in §210.903.2, RSMo and to provide the information to requesters for employment purposes, as provided in §210.921.1, RSMo.

WHERE DO I SEND MY REGISTRATION FORM?

Send your completed registration form and photocopy of Social Security card and required fee to the Missouri Department of Health and Senior Services, ATTN: Fee Receipts, P.O. Box 570, Jefferson City, MO 65102. If you have questions, please call the Registry using the toll-free telephone number, 866-422-6872.

WHEN WILL I KNOW THE RESULTS OF MY BACKGROUND SCREENING?

After the background screening has been completed, you will be notified in writing of the results that will be recorded in the Family Care Safety Registry. You will also be notified in writing each time background screening information is provided. The notification will contain the name and address of the person who made the request and the background information disclosed. The person making the request will be informed that information will be released for employment purposes only, pursuant to §210.921.1, RSMo. Any person using Registry information for any other purpose is guilty of a class B misdemeanor. In addition, state agencies can request information for licensure or regulatory purposes. Prior to disclosing information, the Registry obtains the name and address of the requester, and determines that the request is for employment or regulatory purposes. To ensure you receive these notifications, it will be important for you to notify the Family Care Safety Registry when you have a change in your contact information. Notify the Family Care Safety Registry of changes in personal or contact information using the toll-free telephone number, 866-422-6872, by email to fcsr@health.mo.gov, or by mail to FCSR, PO Box 570, Jefferson City, MO 65102.

WHAT IF I DON'T AGREE WITH THE RESULTS OF MY BACKGROUND SCREENING?

As provided in §210.912, RSMo, you have the right to appeal the information transferred to the Family Care Safety Registry. Your right to appeal is limited to the accuracy of the transfer of information from the state agency that maintains the background information and does not include a right to appeal the accuracy of the substance of the information transferred. An appeal must be filed in writing to the Office of the Director, Missouri Department of Health and Senior Services, P.O. Box 570, Jefferson City, MO, 65102, within 30 days of receiving the results of the background screening determination. An administrative appeal shall be set within 30 days of the filing of the appeal and a decision shall be made within 60 days. This right to appeal is in addition to any other appeal rights granted by state law.

WHAT INFORMATION WILL BE DISCLOSED BY THE FAMILY CARE SAFETY REGISTRY?

Disclosure of background information on a person registered in the Family Care Safety Registry will be limited. If the person is registered, the Registry worker will disclose whether the person's name is listed in any of the background checks pursuant to §210.903, subsection 2, RSMo, and if so, which one(s). Specific information will be disclosed by the Registry pursuant to §210.921, subsection 1, subdivision (2).
